

Make a statement with Bretton Park Sliderobes

The benefits of sliding door storage systems are well known. Their space saving characteristics, the ease of access they afford, and their sleek contemporary styling makes them a highly practical solution for the homes of today.

With contemporary styling, a wide choice of panel options, and the flexibility of a made to measure service.

Bretton Park sliding doors provide the ability to create unique designs tailored to your individual tastes.

Incorporating technology from Astin, one of the leading companies in the field of sliding doors, the Bretton Park system offers an additional touch of sophistication with an integrated soft closing mechanism providing a smooth and silent soft closing action.

The following pages feature a selection of inspirational room sets to provide you with ideas and suggestions of just what is possible with the Bretton Park sliding door system – choose from 7 standard panel configurations, over 40 stunning panel finish options, and a choice of matt aluminium or lacquered bronze frame finishes – we hope you will be inspired to be creative.
